Chapel Report

For the chapel service last Summer Fellowship we conducted the Scouters Prayer followed by a responsive reading related to the Scout Law. Next, we had another prayer that had to do with the importance of the BSA's mission in the world. This was then followed by an important message from Robert Baden-Powell who spoke about the importance of reverence and faith. The service was then concluded with a patriotic hymn. Each part of the service was given by one of the Chapter's Chaplain Aides. We look forward to the next fellowship and hope to offer another quality chapel service.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Robert Reich

Greetings Echokotee Lodge,
I hope you all had a fantastic summer. Summer Fellowship was an absolute blast. It was awesome meeting each of our new Ordeal Members at the FYA Round-up. Furthermore, it was nice to see the lodge have fun at the pool. Fall Fellowship is looking to be even more fun and exciting as we get into our elections. Make sure to be there especially to support all of our new officer candidates. I can't wait to see you at Fall Fellowship.

Wassup Echockotee, I'm sure all of you are anxious for Fall Fellowship, and I hope we blow it out of the park with attendance. Can't wait to hear everyone's spirit.
Yours in Brotherhood,
Johan Kraus

Howdy Echockotee!
I am sending this report from Philmont; some other Brothers may be here too. I really hope I see my Brothers here in God's Country. Summer Fellowship was phenomenal, and moving the FYA Breakfast to the evening turned out great. All the activities went well and we welcomed new Ordeals and congratulated new Brotherhood Members with such fervor. In the future, the FYA Round-up will hopefully become a Luau, and I'm hoping to see that our Ceremonies team is completely filled out with each role covered, so if you have any interest in Ceremonies, please talk to Chairman Nick, who's number and email you can find in the Planbook. Anyway, I hope to see all of you at Fall Fellowship.
Yours in Brotherhood,
Jacob Raynor

GGOOOodd DDAAYY
EECCHHOOCCKKOOTTEEEE!!
Summer Fellowship was great!
On the Secretary side of things, we established an at-fellowship texting service and I got to read many great brotherhood reports! Other Officers and I also had to oversee a few more committees than usual which was a good time! Going forward, I hope to establish an outside-fellowship texting service. See you all at Fall Fellowship!
Yours in Brotherhood,
Avery Dennis

Howdy Brothers,
Although I wasn't able to attend
last fellowship due to work, from what I hear fellowship was a blast! I'm so stoked that fellowship was a success amidst the chaos and would like to thank everyone for making the event possible. Committees and Chapter Chiefs, don't forget to send me your reimbursement forms if needed. I look forward to seeing, and hearing all of the Echokotee Lodge spirit at Fall Fellowship!
Yours in Brotherhood,
Tristan Baker

Echokotee, it's been too long.
Fall Fellowship is finally here, WOOOO. We have a great time planned for everyone. I for one have been really looking forward to fellowship for a while.
I cannot wait to see everyone, do some great service, and get to have some fun. Good luck on elections, may the best Arrowman win.
Yours in Brotherhood,
Nicholas Pagliocca,

Wekiwa

Good day, Echokotee! In the past few months, Wekiwa has really evolved as a chapter. We have gone from one of the lowest attending chapters to being back in the running for SONIC. We still have great plans for summer, and we have already come up with great ideas for props. We are ready to bring all the spirit we can for Fall Fellowship. GO FIGHTING MANATEES!

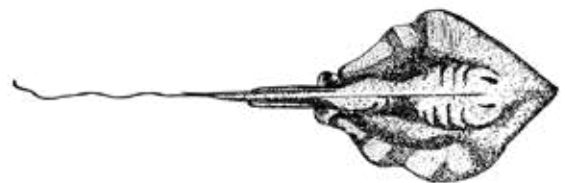

Yours in Brotherhood,
Grant Stanley

LODDDDGGGEEEE!!!!!!!!!!!! Summer fellowship was quite successful for us Tunkashillians, our numbers have been growing with many new Arrowmen (including Tator Tot the cat) and quite a few returning Arrowmen.
Our chants were a bit quiet at Summer Fellowship, however don't underestimate us... We'll come back with EVEN MORE SPIRIT in fall. See you at Fall Fellowship.

Potano

GOOOOOOOODDDDD DAAAAAYYYY
ECHOKOTEE LODGE!
We've all been having a great time here in Potano; staffing, traveling, and relaxing.
We're excited to get started again with the new mystery theme of Fall Fellowship and all the fun that brings with it.
Everything's going smoothly here in Potano.
Membership is going well with good retention and enthusiastic Potanians, and our Summer Staff contingent is smashing it with their support for our lodge and district.
We hope everyone has a great summer, be it camping, staffing, working, or everything in between; and as always, we're excited to see you all at Fall Fellowship!
